

data Cloud

System partner

Your manufacturer real time data

data Cloud enables your customers access to daily updated product data, as well as price and availability queries from their manufacturers, which they can transfer to your ERP system with one click.

Features at a glance

- Latest product data directly uploaded into your ERP system
- Full product data NEW
- Ability to make price and availability queries with ERP Connect
- Product search and category navigation NEW
- Simple integration into your ERP system via REST/JSON-API NEW
- Ordering via API NEW

Your benefits

- Up-to-date and high-quality product data
- Higher customer satisfaction through optimised quality of consulting due to original manufacturer product data. This means: you will acquire more customers and your sales revenue will increase.
- Always up-to-date with the the latest products
- Complete catalog display through product search and category navigation NEW
- Simplified ordering process NEW
- Your process efficiency increases thanks to a single interface that allows the connection several retailers at the same time
- Your effort decreases and processes are optimised